Tom: G

   This is for normal people who couldn't be stuffed learning 50 new chord and tune down every time you want to play this song.
The way Jeff plays it only sounds good with a band!!!!!, and so do some bits of this, Sing along - it will sound better.

TIP - Paste this into notepad.

You can play this bit if you like I usually start on Intro . just doesn't sound right without allot of delay!!

strum as fast as you can and slide between these.
