

Jefferson Airplane - Greasy Heart

Tom: C

Am
 Lady, you keep asking why he likes you how come
 Am
 Wonder why he wants more if he just had some
 Em D Am
 Boys, she's got more to play with in the way of toys
 Am
 Ladies eyes go off and on with a finger full of glue
 Am
 Lips are drawn upon her face in come-to-me tattoo
 Em D Am
 Creamy suntan color that fades when she bathes
 Am
 Paper dresses catch on fire & you lose her in the haze
 F G Am
 Don't ever change lady, he likes you that way
 Am
 Because he just had his hair done and he wants to use your wig
 Am
 He's going off the drug thing cause his veins are getting big

Em D Am
 He wants to sell his paintings but the market is slow
 Am
 They're only paying him two grams now for a one-man abstract show
 F G Am
 Don't ever change people even if you can
 Am
 You are your own best toy to play with remote control hands
 Am
 Made for each other made in Japan
 Em D Am
 Woman with a greasy heart, automatic man
 Am
 Don't ever change people your face will hit the fan
 F G Am
 Don't ever change people even if you can
 Em D
 Don't change before the empire falls You'll laugh so hard you'll crack the
 walls
