

Jerry Lee Lewis - Born To Be a Loser

Tom: G

I guess I?m born to be a loser

Lord a loser just can?t win

If I can?t be your lover

Woman let me be your friend

Maybe I took a little bit too much for granted

When I fell in love with you

But the Killer can?t help it baby

I thought you loved me too

Oh honey I need you

But you walked away from Jerry Lee

Why in the world did you do it

Ain?t nobody?s perfect can?t you see

Oh Lord I feel a little strange baby

Since you walked away from me

Why in the world woman

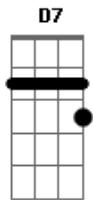

Did you ever leave rockin? Jerry Lee

Think about it
