

Jerry Lee Lewis - Honky Tonk Wine

Tom: C

Sweet honky tonk wine keeps me out of my mind

All she left behind was some sweet honky tonk wine

While I was out drinking and laughing my woman has home a packing

And all she left me was a bottle and a note
Saying I'm out enjoying myself

On some of that sweet honky tonk wine

Sweet honky tonk wine keeps me out of my mind

All she left behind was some sweet honky tonk wine

Well I'm sitting here feeling empty

As that old wine bottle that she left me

Cause I can't hold enough to stop me from thinking

That she's out holding somebody

And a drinking that sweet honky tonk wine

Sweet honky tonk wine keeps me out of my mind

All she left behind was some sweet honky tonk wine
