

Jerry Lee Lewis - How's My Ex Treating You

Tom: C

How's my ex my ex treating you
 Has she had time time to find someone new
 Any day now will be her last son I know from the past
 Cause I was once once there too how's my ex treating you
 Like the sand she'll move with the tide
 Your two arms will never keep her satisfied

You can't keep her satisfied
 She'll use you just the way she used me too
 But up to now how's my ex treating you
 Like the sand she'll move with the tide
 Your two arms will never keep her satisfied
 She'll use you just the way she used me too
 But up to now how's my ex treating you
