

Jerry Lee Lewis - The Hole He Said He'd Dig For Me

Tom: C

With this bank book in your hand and your arms around me
 Today you saw just how big one man can be
 Your so called friends gathered round as they laid him in the ground
 In the hole he said he'd dig he'd dig for me

Yes he thought he was a king my but he owned this whole wide world

But if only he could come back and see
 His castle now would be on momma's stone just two by three

By the hole he said would dig he'd dig for me

His money it could never buy like the gleam in your eyes
 The way you look when you stand so close to me

As I walk off with his prize somehow I hope he was satisfied
 In the hole he said he was gonna dig now for me

Yes I thought he was a king that he owned the world

But if only he could come back now and see
 His castle now would be on momma's stone just two by three
 By the hole he said he'd dig he would dig for me
