

Jerry Lee Lewis - When He Walks On You

Tom: G

Someday you'll feel a trembling in your knees

When time has changed the fashions of his dreams

Then you'll grow weak from holding on the love that wants to leave

When he walks on you like you have walked on me

When you wake up without him please remember

A faithful heart of your old used-to-be

With happy tears and open arms I'll welcome you sweetheart

When he walks on you like you have walked on me

When you wake up without him please remember

A faithful heart of your old used-to-be

With happy tears and open arms I'll welcome you sweetheart

When he walks on you like you have walked on me

When he walks on you like you have walked on me
