                    G
Intro:  C   Em   G   D

                    C
Searching all the stars for a sign of hope
                 Em
Looking for the light that can lead me home
              G
But do I even know myself
              D
Do I even know myself

                 C
And trying now to pick up?the?pieces?again
               Em
Just to find?them all fall?further in
                G
And do I even trust myself
            D
Do I even trust?

                 C
Lord will you save my mind?
               Em
Lord will you make it right?
                 G
Cause I feel like a man gone blind
                     D
Dont know if its the day or night, oh
                C
Will you save my mind?
               Em
Lord will you make it right?
                 G
Cause I feel like I?m lost this time
                  D
Dont know if its the day or

The day or

     C
The night how it shows the road
          Em
Oh I?ve been a fool to take it on alone
                   G
You know that I could use som? help
                      D
You know that I could use some h?lp

                C
And I just wanna feel that fire again
             Em
I just want some healing deep within
                     G
I know that its been hard to tell
```

```
I know that its been hard

To tell
                        C
Lord will you save my mind?
                 Em
Lord will you make it right?
                     G
Cause I feel like a man gone blind
                       D
Dont know if its the day or night, oh
               C
Will you save my mind?
                 Em
Lord will you make it right?
                       G
Cause I feel like I?m lost this time
                   D
Dont know if its the day or
                  C
The day or the night
( C   Em   G   D )

                   C
You can change my heart and my mind
                 Em
You can bring me to the other side
                 G
You can change me
           D
You can save me oh
                   C
You can change my heart and my mind
                 Em
You can bring me to the other side
                 G
You can change me
           D
You can save me oh

                   C
Lord will you save my mind?
                 Em
Lord will you make it right?
                 G
Cause I feel like a man gone blind
                     D
Dont know if its the day or night, oh
                C
Will you save my mind?
                 Em
Lord will you make it right?
                 G
Cause I feel like I?m lost this time
                   D
Dont know if its the day or
                  C
The day or the night
