Jessica Benko - A Soulmate Who Wasn't Meant To Be

```
So why do I still care for you?
I never should have called
          Am
'Cause I knew you would leave me
                                                                 Stranger, that's all I see
     Dm
                   G
But I didn't think you could do it so easily
                                                                 When I look into your eyes
And I never should have held your hand
                                                                  A soulmate who wasn't meant to be
                                                                                  Am
On that cold rainy night
                                                                 Stranger, who knows all my secrets
\overline{\mbox{Dm}} \overline{\mbox{G}} 'Cause further along, it would cause another fight
                                                                         Dm
                                                                  Can pull me apart and break my heart
                                                                 A soulmate who wasn't meant to be
Stranger, that's all I see
                                                                                                       Dm
                                                                 Wish I could go back to the day we met and leave you be
When I look into your eyes
A soulmate who wasn't meant to be
                                                                 Sit and look pretty
                 Am
Stranger, who knows all my secrets
                                                                 Never should have called
Can pull me apart and break my heart
                                                                 Never should have helped
                                                                           Dm
                                                                 Never should have kissed
A soulmate who wasn't meant to be
                                                                 Never should have said
I never should have kissed
Kissed your hand
                                                                 Stranger, that's all I see
I am under your control
                                                                 When I look into your eyes
I will never understand
                                                                 A soulmate who wasn't meant to be
                                                                 Stranger, who knows all my secrets
I never should have said
                                                                  Can pull me apart and break my heart
                                                                 A soulmate who wasn't meant to be
"I love you"
```

You never said it back
