

Jessie Ware - Spotlight

tom:
Intro: D Bm Am
Ain't enough to say
That I think of you
Words can never do
The things that I need them to Tell me when I'll get more
Than a dream of you
'Cause a dream is just a dream
And I don't wanna sleep tonight

[Primeira Parte]

(Ah, ah, ah)
(Ah, ah, ah) Do anything to make you stay
Do anything to start the day again
(Ah, ah, ah) If I had everything my way
We'd travel back and forth and back again

[Refrão]

If only I could let you go, if only I could be alone
I just wanna stay in moonlight, this is our time in the spotlight
If only I could let you go, if only I could be alone
I just wanna stay in moonlight, this is our time in the spotlight (Why?)

[Segunda Parte]

(Ah, ah, ah)
(Ah, ah, ah) It's like you never even left
I need a moment, just a moment
(Ah, ah, ah) Blow me a kiss, I catch your breath
Give me a moment, so devoted

[Refrão]

If only I could let you go, if only I could be alone
I just wanna stay in moonlight, this is our time in the spotlight (Why?)

If only I could let you go, if only I could be alone
I just wanna stay in moonlight, this is our time in the spotlight (Why?)

[Ponte]

Can't keep the sun from rising
Can't keep the heart from beating
Can't stop you from believing
Can't keep the sun from rising
Can't keep the air we're breathing
Can't stop your heart from leaving
Can't keep the sun from rising
Can't keep the heart from beating
Can't stop you from believing
Can't keep the sun from rising
Can't keep the air we're breathing
Can't stop your heart from leaving

[Refrão]

If only I could let you go, if only I could be alone
I just wanna stay in moonlight, this is our time in the spotlight
If a dream is just a dream, and a dream is just a kiss
Then tell me what it means, tell me what this is
And if a touch is just a touch, then a touch just ain't enough
Tell me what it means, tell me you're in love
Tell me when I'll get more than a dream of you
Tell me when I'll get more than a dream of you
Can't keep the sun from rising
Can't keep the heart from beating
Can't stop you from believing
Can't keep the sun from rising
Can't keep the air we're breathing
Can't stop your heart from leaving
