[Primeira Parte]

I don't care what it looks like
I don't care how it sounds
I just want to be where You are
Your presence is better
Than all that I've found
I just want to be where You are

[Pré-Refrão]

I've heard the rumors of the
Places You've been
Where Your presence has set hearts on fire
If You did it before You will do it again
It's only a matter of time

[Refrão]

So why not right now?
Why not right now?
Why not right now?
Why not right now?

[Segunda Parte]

I've felt the stirring
Deep in my soul
A whisper that says there is more
It's a holy desire
For the greater things
To see them like never before
We'll see You like never before

[Pré-Refrão]

I've heard the rumors of the
Places You've been
Where Your presence has set hearts on fire
If You did it before You will do it again
It's only a matter of time
