My heart aches for you my God
My soul waits for you my God
I've come far to find you here
In this place will I draw near

Verso:

And your spirit soars me
to the highest heights
From where I am not look back
I'll keep trusting You

For I know You are faithful, my God
From the land of the barren
We will cry out for rain
Fill our hearts God
I'll keep trusting You

For I know You are faithful, my God
Your spirit inside me holds me close
The wonderful presence I let go
I cleanse my hands
You burn my heart
I cry out for love
You set me apart

And your spirit soars me
to the highest heights
From where I am not look back
I'll keep trusting You

For I know You are faithful, my God
And your spirit soars me
to the highest heights
From where I am not look back
I'll keep trusting You
