

Jethro Tull - Too Old to Rock 'n' Roll: Too Young to Die

Tom: Bb
Intro: Cm - Ab - F - Gbm - Eb - Db - F - G

Verso 1:
The old Rocker wore his hair too long,
wore his trouser cuffs too tight, unfashionable to the end,
drank his ale too light.

Pré-refrão:
Death's head belt buckle, yesterday's dream,
the transport café prophet of doom.
Ringing no change in his double-sewn seams in his post-war-babe gloom.

Refrão:
Now he's too old to rock 'n' roll,
but he's too young to die.
Yes he's too old to rock 'n' roll,
but he's too young to die.

Verso 2:
He once owned a Harley Davids' son,
and a Triumph Bonneville,
counted his friends in burned-out spark plugs,
and prays that he always will.

Pré-refrão:
But he's the last of the blue blood greaser boys,
all of his mates are doing time.
Married with three kids up by the rising road
sold their souls straight down the line.
And some of them own little sports cars,
and meet at the tennis club do's.
For drinks on a Sunday, work on Monday,
they've thrown away their blue suede shoes.

Refrão:
Now he's too old to rock 'n' roll,
but he's too young to die.
Yes he's too old to rock 'n' roll,
but he's too young to die.

Ponte:
- Cm - Ab - F - Gbm - Eb - Db - F - G

Verso 3:
So the old rocker gets out his bike,
to make a ton before he takes his leave.
Up on the A1 by Scotch Corner,
just like it used to be.

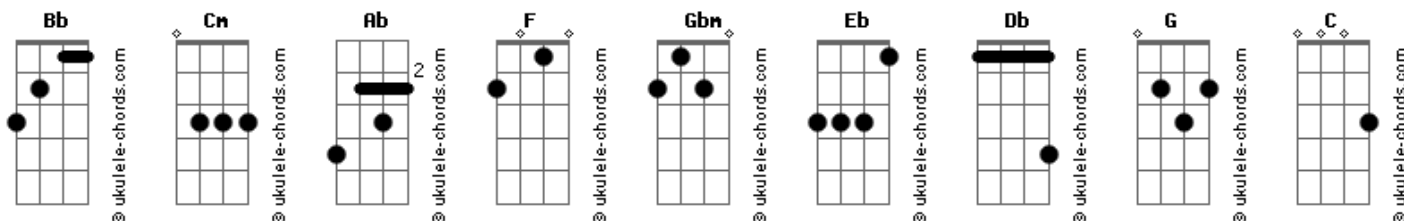

Pré-refrão:
And as he flies, tears in his eyes,
his wind-whipped words echo the final take.
And he hits the trunk road doing around a hundred and twenty, with no room left to brake.

Refrão:
And he was too old to rock 'n' roll,
but he was too young to die.
Yes, he was too old to rock 'n' roll,
and he was too young to die.

Verso final:
Now, you're never too old to rock 'n'
if you're too young to die.
And now you're never too old to rock 'n'
but you're too young to die.
