

Jethro Tull - Wond'ring Again

Tom: C

(As notas não som o tom, toque como se o violão começasse do capô)
( D C D C )

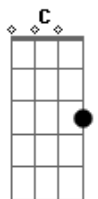

Am C G D F D
There's the stillness of death on a deathly unliving sea,
Am C G D F D
and the motor car magical world long since ceased to be,
Am C G D F D
when the Eve-bitten apple returned to destroy the tree.
C D C D
Incestuous ancestry's charabanc ride,
C D C D
spawning new millions throws the world on its side.
G D B Cm7
Supporting their far-flung illusion, the national curse,
G D F C D D D D
and those with no sandwiches please get off the bus.
Am C G D F D
The excrement bubbles, the century's slime decays
Am C G D F D
and the brainwashing government lackeys would have us say
Am C G D F D
it's under control and we'll soon be on our way
C D C D
to a grand year for babies and quiz panel games
C D C D
of the hot hungry millions you'll be sure to remain.
G D Em Cm7
The natural resources are dwindling and no one grows old,
G D F C D D D D

and those with no homes to go to, please dig yourself holes.
C D G
D
We wandered through quiet lands, felt the first breath of C D G D
snow.
C D G D
Searched for the last pigeon, slate grey I've been told.
C D G D D
Em G
Stumbled on a daffodil which she crushed in the rush, heard it
G D D D D
sigh,
and left it to die.
Em C D C D
D
At once felt remorse and were touched by the loss of our own,
Em C D C
held its poor broken head in her hands,dropped soft tears in the snow,
F C G D D
and it's only the taking that makes you what you are.
C D G D
Wond'ring aloud will a son one day be born
C D G D
to share in our infancy in the child's path we've worn.
C D G D
In the aging seclusion of this earth that our birth did surprise
Em G D
we'll open his eyes.
