

Johnnie Laska - Gone Country

He's gone country, a new kind of suit
                                                              He's gone country, here he comes (riff)
                                                              Play Chorus 1x
She's been playing that room on the strip for ten years in
                                                              He commutes to L.A., but he's got a house in the valley
Every night she looks in the mirror but she only ages
                                                              But the bills are piling up and the pop scene just ain't on a She's been reading 'bout Nashville and all the records that everybody's buying
                                                               (riff)
Says I'm a simple girl myself grew up on Long Island
                                                              He says honey I'm a serious composer schooled in voice and composition
So she packs her bags to try her hand
Says this might be my last chance
                                                              But with the crime and the smog these days this ain't no place
                                                                      Em
She's gone country, look at them boots
                                                               Lord it sounds so easy, this shouldn't take long
She's gone country, back to her roots
                                                              Be back in the money in no time at all
She's gone country, a new kind of suit
                                                              He's gone country, look at them boots
          Fm
She's gone country, here she comes
                                                                       G
                                                              He's gone country, back to his roots
                                                       (riff) He's gone country, a new kind of suit
Well the folk scene's dead, but he's holding out in the
                                                                       Fm
                                                              He's gone country, here he comes village
He's been writing songs, speaking out against wealth and Yeah he's gone country, a new kind of walk
                                                              He's gone country, a new kind of talk
He says I don't believe in money, but a man could make him a
                                                              He's gone country, look at them boots
killin'
                                                              He's gone country, oh back to his roots
Cause some of that stuff don't sound much different than Dylan
I hear down there it's changed you see
                                                              He's gone country
They're not as backwards as they used to be
                                                              He's gone country
                                                               Everybody's gone country
He's gone country, look at them boots
                                                                       G
                                                               Yeah we've gone country
                  C
He's gone country, back to his roots
                                                                       D
                                                                                              CDGCD
                                                               The whole world's gone country
