

Jim Croce - Railroad Song

tom:

Intro: D, ^ADadd9

[verse 1]

When I ^{Bm}was a boy
^GIn the days of the train
^{Bm}I'd sit by the tracks
^AOn a long summer day
^GAnd I'd wave to the brakeman
^DAnd he'd wave back at me
^{Bm A}While the thunderclouds rolled
^DOut of east Tennessee

[verse 2]

^{Bm}But the dreams of a boy
^{G D}Disappear when you're grown
^{Bm}And though I may dream
^AThe railroads are gone
^GThe ties they are rotten
^DAnd the tracks shot to hell
^{Bm A}

Along with my dreams

^{D G D}And the old railroad bell

[chorus]

In my dreams ^{G A D}I ride the rails to California
^{G A D}Working dinners and farms along the way
^{G A D}Or I'd hop a ride to hide across the border
^{G A D}With a black eyed girl beside all the way

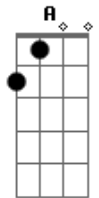

[verse 3]

^{Bm}Now the mountains are silent
^{G D}And the railroads are gone
^{Bm}And the coal towns no longer
^AHear the miners at dawn
^GBut the train whistle shrills
^DOut her memories to me
^{Bm A}While the thunderclouds rolled
^DOut of east Tennessee

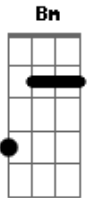

[chorus]

[verse 3]
