

Jimmy Eat World - 555

tom:

Intro:

^C
I keep my focus on the simple things
^C
Trying to find some peace along the way
^C
Wish I knew how long I'm supposed to wait
^C
Holding on but just barely

^C
Got the feeling I've been talking to a dead, dead line
^C
There's always a reason to let it change
^C
Is there anyone there listening while you cry, cry, cry?
^C
There's always a reason for the pain
^G
I'm doing the things that I'm told every day, every day, every day

^G
Then why does it feel like I'm moving in place, in place, in place?

^C
Never had anything to prove
^C
But never was anyone like you
^C
All you fought through, all you had to face
^C
Made you stronger, unafraid

^C
Got the feeling I've been talking to a dead, dead line
^C
There's always a reason to let it change
^C
Is there anyone there listening while you cry, cry, cry?
^C
There's always a reason for the pain

^G
I'm doing the things that I'm told every day, every day, every day

^G
Then why does it feel like I'm moving in place, in place, in place?

^G
I gotta believe that you're there when I sing, when I sing, when I sing

^G
'Cause if you're not real, I'm losing my head, in my head, in my head

^C
Got the feeling I've been talking to a dead, dead line
