

Jimmy Rickman - You Broke My Heart

Tom: A

I know that human beings
 Sometimes can do terrible things
 But what you did to me
 Left me worse than you think
 I couldn't even imagine
 That you were capable to leave
 In the middle of our wedding
 And say "Now I'm free"
 You broke my heart
 For a half hour passion
 And made me cry
 You broke my heart
 But you promised you'll never do it to me in your life

A E Gbm D (2x)

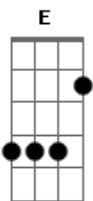

I know what love can do
 Blow both our hearts and minds
 But I thought what you feel for me
 Was the same that I used to feel for you
 You broke my heart
 For a half hour passion
 And made me cry
 You broke my heart
 But you promised you'll never do it to me in your life
 You broke my heart
 For a half hour passion
 And don't even tell me why
 You broke my heart
 Now I think we were nothing but waste of time

A E Gbm D (2x)
