Joan Osborne - Right Hand Man

Tom: C Have you got a clean shirt My panties in a wad I didn't figure out all of this song...only the at the bottom of my purse verse riff. It is an I walk into the street integral part of the song though so that fact should keep this The air's so cool I'm wired and I'm tired from being a worthless post. I'm including the lyrics as well so that and I'm grinnin' like a fool should help the The verse riff should be fairly accurate cause. I've been on the floor lookin' for a chair I've been on a chair lookin' for a couch I've been on a couch lookin' for a bed because it's similar if not identical to what the guitarist played on SNL. The lookin' for a bed lookin' for my my transcription is fairly general but just play it loosely to make up for any inaccuracies. The My right hand, my right hand man(7x) positions should be correct though. Write me with any If he can't fix it I don't know who can (main riff) "Right Hand Man" (J.Osborne, E.Bazilian, R.Hyman, R.Chertoff, woo hoo D.Van Vliet) aw yeah From Joan Osborne's "Relish" Sesame(?)a salesman Guitar parts performed on the album by Eric Bazilian The cops on the block They know what I've been doin' Verse riff and lyrics transcribed by Bryson Meunier They see the way I walk main riff(clean electric)-I wonder what they'd say now I wonder what they'd do They feel somebody want them Repeat that riff throughout verse. There's a possibility that The way I'm wanting you it might vary slightly at certain points. Just play along with the rhythm (bridge) and it should sound fine. Even though I described the tone as clean (chorus) electric, there may be a slight reverb or some other effect. I'm not a musician so I use me up if you think you can really don't (sax solo/verse riff) know. It sounds fine clean though IMO. (bridge) (chorus(extended variation)) lvrics: Let me use your toothbrush If he can't fix it gonna find a boy who can
