

Joan Shelley - Siren

tom:
 C
 You're lost on a sea that you sailed on
 Am C
 Now its cold and rough where you are
 It's a harsh wind blowing
 G
 But I did not cause this storm you see
 F Am
 I've just been here, open-armed
 G
 Invitingly
 C Am
 I've been alone on this sea for so long
 F Am
 I wanted to touch, I had to feel love
 C G C
 Before these waves took me under
 G Am
 But Aden you came to me in the dark
 G
 In the dark
 G
 And as gentle as a siren can be
 Am G
 I caught you and I held you down
 C
 Oh if the pink light of morning
 Am
 Would wash all the demons out of here
 F Am
 I could lie down on your ground
 C G
 And pull my body near
 C Am
 But all the knots in my stomach are telling
 F
 There's no where to rest
 Am
 There's no place to go
 C G

And the shadows they keep on
 Am
 With their shanty song
 ( F Am C G )
 ( F Am C G G )
 Am G
 It's the darkest horse that's chasing me down
 Am
 And the gods here have no care
 G
 Where you go when you drown
 F Am C
 I've been mistaken for something I'm not
 G
 For something I wished I could be
 F Am
 Pretty and fine
 C
 I'd draw the line
 G
 At just singing soothingly
 F Am
 But I've been a liar
 C
 I have been ugly
 G
 I can be ugly
 ( F Am C G )
 ( F Am C G )
 F Am
 And we'll join the Venture and the Morning Star
 C G
 Singing haul away my laddie-o
 ( F Am C G )
 ( F Am C G )
 C Am C
 You're lost on a sea that you sailed on
 Am
 Now its cold and rough
