All around I see raining
 Things don't seem to go my way
 Got a dark cloud that's hanging
 And it seems to follow me

Oh won't you just wake up feel the humming
 This cruel world is killing you better start running Catch up with your life, catch on up Before the whole thing is through

Have you once? Have you twice?
 Have you even considered it be really good for you To go out and go on take another better look around

Verse

You are just another white boy Thinking you're so hardcore
 Take step outside see what's shaking in the real world

Pre-Chorus

Go take a step outside see what's shaking in the real world
 Go take a step outside see what's shaking in the real world

Chorus

But you don't know how my heart laments
 I really got a good excuse to complain
 My parents got divorced
 Can't heal the pain

Riff

And now there is only cheap regrets I guess that's just the way it be
 Is it the world or how I see me

Verse

Boy now you are really, really bugging Yes you are bugging me, can't you just shut right up Your cup is overflowing, overflowing
 And you think it is indeed

Pre-Chorus

You don't even know what side you are fighting for Boy won't you turn your game boy off Start pretending
 it's you against the world
 I am sick and I am tired of hearing of hearing you always say

Chorus

Keyboard Solo
