All around I see raining
Things don't seem to go my way
Got a dark cloud that's hanging
And it seems to follow me

Oh won't you just wake up feel the humming
This cruel world is killing you better start running Catch up with your life, catch on up Before the whole thing is through

Have you once? Have you twice?
Have you even considered it be really good for you To go out and go on take another better look around

Verse

You are just another white boy
Thinking you're so hardcore
Take step outside see what's shaking in the real world

Pre-Chorus

Go take a step outside see what's shaking in the real world
Go take a step outside see what's shaking in the real world

Chorus

But you don't know how my heart laments
I really got a good excuse to complain

Riff

My parents got divorced
Can't heal the pain

And now there is only cheap regrets
I guess that's just the way it be

Verse

Is it the world or how I see me

Boy now you are really, really bugging
Yes you are bugging me, can't you just shut right up Your cup is overflowing, overflowing

Pre-Chorus

And you think it is indeed

You don't even know what side you are fighting for

Chorus

Boy won't you turn your game boy off Start pretending
it's you against the world
I am sick and I am tried of hearing

Keyboard Solo

of hearing you always say

Guitar Solo

I really got a good excuse to complain
My parents got divorced

[Palm mute the strings lightly]

Go take a step outside see what's shaking in the real world
Go take a step outside see what's shaking in the real world
Go take a step outside see what's shaking in the real world
Go take a step outside see what's shaking in the real world

Chorus

[Guitar Solo]

Go take a step outside see what's shaking in the real world
Go take a step outside see what's shaking in the real world
