

Tom: G

Intro:

John Denver - Fly Away

```
Solo 1 / 2 / 4 / 6:

Solo 3 / 5:

G All of her days have gone soft and cloudy D7sus4
All of her dreams have gone dry G G
All of her nights have gone sad and shady G D7sus4
She's getting ready to fly

Am D7 Am D7 G G G D7sus4
Fly Away , fly away], fly away

G G G G D7sus4
For sounds of the sand and the sea G I love the sea
```

```
Life in a high rise can make you hungry
                              D7sus4
For things that you can't even see
    D7 Am D7 G G G D7sus4
Fly Away , fly away], fly away
                            Bm
                                              CaddD
In this whole world there's nobody as lonely as she nobody as lonely me
There's nowhere to go and there's nowhere
G G G D7sus4
That she'd rather be
I'd rather be
She's looking for lovers and children playing
                              D7sus4
She's looking for signs of the spring
                             G Where is the spring
She listens for laughter and sounds of dancing
                           D7sus4
She listens for any old things
      D7 Am
               D7 Am
Fly Away , fly away, fly away, fly away
G G G
Where are my days Where are my nights
       G
Where is the spring
                      I want to fly
I want to fly
                 fade out
```

Acordes

