

John Entwistle - It's Hard To Write a Love Song

Tom: D
Intro: F G A F G A

D G
I lie awake at night and try
F G
Not to think about her
F G
Try to live without her
F G D
It's hard, so hard

D G
When you wake up and turn around
F G
You realize she's not there
F G
You tell yourself you don't care
F G D
But you do, she's part of you

Eb F G
Love is a pain that never ends
Eb F G
She becomes part of you
Eb F G
My whole body's aching, my heart is breaking
Eb F
Since you left me, I've missed you
D
And all that rubbish

D G
It's hard to find new ways to say
F G
How much I love you
F G
What I think of you
F G D
I love you, I need you, I want you, etcetera, etcetera
D G
It's hard to write a love song
F G
That has something new to say
F G
Without using old cliches

F G D
I love you, I want you, I miss you, etcetera, etcetera

Eb F G
Love is a pain that never ends
Eb F G
She becomes part of you
Eb F G
My whole body's aching, my heart is breaking
Eb F
Since you left me, I've missed you
D
And all that rubbish

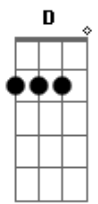

[Solo] D F G
