

John Fogerty - Hundred And Ten In The Shade

Tom: G

Intro: D Am D C D

D D
Way out there in the cotton
Am D
Sun beatin' down so hard
D
Sweat rollin' of this shovel
Am D
Diggin' in the devil's boneyard

G
Sure like a cool drink of water
Bb
Soft rag to soothe my face
D Am D
Sure like a woman to talk to in this place

D
It's a hundred and ten
G D
Hundred and ten in the shade
D
Goin' way down
Am D
Mama won't you carry me

D D
Handle so hot I can't stand it
Am D
Might shrivel up and blow away
D
Noonday sun make you crazy
Am D
Least, that's what the old men say

G
Bottom land hard as a gravestone
Bb
Couldn't cut it with an axe

D Am
Gonna lay me down right here
D
And that's a fact

D
It's a hundred and ten
G D
Hundred and ten in the shade

D
Goin' way down
Am D
Mama won't you carry me

[Solo] D Am D

D D
Sometimes late in the evenin'
Am D
Everything is quiet and still
D D
I set here and think about leavin'
Am D
Lord, I guess I never will

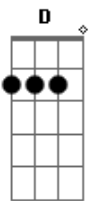

G
Heartache down in that city
Bb
Bright light scares me anyway
D Am D
Sure like a woman to talk in this place

D
It's a hundred and ten
G D
Hundred and ten in the shade
D
Goin' way down
Am D
Mama won't you carry me
