

John Lennon - I Know (I Know)

Tom: A
Intro:

And I know now what I have done
 And I know and I'm guilty (yes I am)
 But I never could speak my mind.

 I know what I was missing
 but now my eyes can see
 I put myself in your place
 as you did for me

 The years have passed so quickly
 One thing I've understood
 I am only learning
 To tell the trees from wood..

 I know what's coming down
 And I know where it's coming from
 And I know and I'm sorry (yes I am)
 But I never could read your mind.

 And I know just how you feel

 Today I love you more than yesterday
 Right now I love you more right now

 I know what's coming down
 I can feel where it's coming from
 And I know it's getting better all the time
 As we share in each other's minds.

 Today I love you more than yesterday
 Right now I love you more right now
 Ooh hoo no more crying X4
