

John Mark McMillan - Ashes And Flames

Tom: D

D
 You and I meet
 G
 On the shores of the broken
 D
 You swallow the ocean
 G
 I Swallow my pride
 D
 Only to see
 G
 The way that I need you
 D
 Is more than I knew
 G
 I ever could

A G
 In between the ashes and the flames
 A
 Is a cry an awkward silence
 G
 Could never contain
 A
 And the falling of my hammers
 And the writhing of my pain
 G
 Is just not as real as the way
 That your calling my name

D G

D
 I cant help thinking

G
 That the way that you want me
 D
 And the ghost that haunts me
 G
 Are one and the same
 D
 Cause you stand at my window
 G
 At night wile I'm sleeping
 D
 There's not a promise I'm keeping
 G
 That could ever repay you

A G
 In between the ashes and the flames
 A
 There's a song that burns brighter
 G
 Than Radio waves
 A
 Bout the remnants of my Idols
 And the shadow of my shame
 G
 About how they scatter like the rain and I can't stop crying
 D
 Cause you wont stop calling my name
 G
 Calling my name
