

John Mark McMillan - Daylight

Tom: F

(com acordes na forma de Capotraste na 5ª casa C )

Am F C G
 Daylight comes to meet you on the road
 like a prodigal son, a prodigal hope that
 Am F C G
 you gave up on, when you were young
 Am F C G
 but daylight is coming on

Am F C G Am F C G
 We live on the edge, on the edge of a darkness
 Am F C G Am F
 We live on the edge, on the edge of a darkness

C G
 but daylight is coming on

Am F C G
 Heaven bends low for the naked and the poor
 Am F C G
 to settle up a debt, to settle up a score
 Am F C G
 to set up a table on the edge of a war
 Am F C G
 cause we've been bleeding on the edge of the sword

Am F C G
 The boardwalk is painted red with the blood
 Of a thousand prospective heroes but one
 Still cries out beyond all the grave and the flood
 Where the blackest abysses cannot overcome
