I was looking at my sin
 But I was never getting free from it
 You've settled it I'm always loved
 Forever right with You, what a grand design
 I was looking for this love
 I was waiting for this day to come
 You're better than I ever thought you'd ever be
 How love changed my frame my mind
 You are love inside my heart
 And I can't imagine one day without ya
 You are the love of my life
 Oh, what a beautiful Grace I'm in
 All the preachers are yellin' holiness
 And all the bleachers can't get ahold of it
 'Cause sin consciousness creates counterfeits
 You want freedom, eyes on Jesus then
 As you behold Him you become like Him
 But nobody's bold 'cause the righteousness
 Preached, well it's works-based obedience

Self-effort, self-confident deviance
 Outward behavior that ways immediate
 But inward change comes with Grace ingredients
 The Gospel is Grace
 And people are saying that it's dangerous
 But haven't tasted all that He's paid for us
 My goodness how wonderfully it changes us
 When we understand where He's placed us in Christ
 We aren't separationists
 Our righteousness, we receive a gift
 It's not leased on some type of work permit
 Confessing like our standing is based on it
 Well our past, our present, and our future of sin
 As far as east from west has been
 Once and for all forever put away
 That we might come boldly
 Everyday every moment wholly convinced
 That God our Father
 Did all the work on the alter
 That we might know Him
 Completely, individually, in love and intimacy
 The Gospel is simply Grace
