

John Mayer - A Face To Call Home

Tom: D

Intro: 2x: D Bm Gbm A

D Bm
I am an architect
Gbm A
Of days that haven't happened yet
D Bm Gbm A
I can't believe a month is all it is been
D Bm
You know my paper heart
Gbm A
The one I fill with pencil marks
D Bm Gbm A
I think I might have gone and let you in

G
Little by little inch by inch
D A
We built a yard with a garden in the middle of it
G
It ain't much but it is a start
D A
You got me swinging right along to the song in your heart
G
And a face to call home

D A
A face to call home

G D A
You got a face to call ho-----me

( D Bm Gbm A )

D Bm
So good you didn't see
Gbm A
The nervous wreck I used to be
D Bm Gbm A
You never know a man could fell so small
D Bm

You never look at me
Gbm A
Like I am a liability
D Bm Gbm A
I bet you think I've never been at all

G
Little by little inch by inch
D A
We built a yard with a garden in the middle of it
G
It ain't much but it is a start
D A
You got me swinging right along to the song in your heart
G
And a face to call home

D A
A face to call home

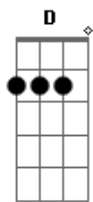

G D A
You got a face to call ho-----me
G
A face to call home
D A
A face to call home

G D A
You got a face to call ho-----me

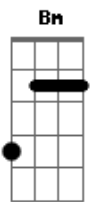

Outro 4x: G D A

G
Maybe I could stay a while
D A
Maybe I could stay a while
G
Maybe I could stay a while
D A
I am talking like all of the time
( G D A )
