

John Mayer - Neon (Base)

```
Bridge 3:
Intro: Cm
           Eb
                Fm
                     Ab Bb (2x)
                                                                                         Gm
                                                                She comes and goes and comes and goes
Verse 1:
When sky blue gets dark enough
                                                                     Gb
To see the colors of the city lights
                                                                Like no one can
A trail of ruby red and diamond white
                                                                                        Gm
                                                                    Ab
Hits her like a sunrise
                                                                She comes and goes and no one knows
                                                                     Fm
                                                                               Gm
                                                                                            Ab
Bridge:
                                                                She's slipping through my hands
    Ab
She comes and goes and comes and goes
                                                                Chorus:
                                                               She's always buzzing just like
    Gb
Like no one can
                                                                Fm
                                                                      Bb
                                                                             Cm
                                                                Neon, neon
          Cm Eb Fm Ab Bb
                                                                Fm
                                                                      Bb
Tonight she's out to lose herself
                                                                Neon, neon
And find a high on Peachtree Street
                                                                               \mathsf{Cm}
                                                                                          Bh
                                                                Fm
                                                                       Bb
From mixed drinks to techno beats it's always
                                                                Who knows how long, how long, how long
Heavy into everything
                                                                She can go before she burns away
Bridge 2:
                                                                Fm Gm Ab
                                                                           Bb
                         Gm
                                                               Fm Gm Ab Bb
     Ab
She comes and goes and comes and goes
                                                                Fm Gm Ab Bb
    Gb
                                                                Cm...
Like no one can
                        Gm
                                                                Bridge
    Ab
She comes and goes and no one knows
     Fm
              Gm
                            Ab
                                                                She comes and goes and comes and goes
She's slipping through my hands
                                                                     Gb
                                                                Like no one can
Chorus:
                                                                    Ab Gm
                                                                She comes and goes
She's always buzzing just like
                                                                     Fm
                                                                                \mathsf{Gm}
                                                                                                  Bb
                                                                She's slipping through my hands
Neon, neon
      Bh
             Cm
                                                                Chorus:
Fm
                                                                She's always buzzing just like
Neon, neon
       Bb
               \mathsf{Cm}
                          Bb
                                                                Fm
                                                                      Bb
Who knows how long, how long, how long
                                                                Neon, neon
                                                                Fm
                                                                      Bb
She can go before she burns away
                                                                Neon, neon
                                                                               \mathsf{Cm}
                                                                Fm
                                                                       Bb
                                                                                          Bb
Verse 3: Cm Eb Fm Ab Bb
                                                                Who knows how long, how long, how long
I can't be her angel now
                                                                She can go before she burns away
You know it's not my place to hold her down
And it's hard for me to take a stand
                                                                    Eb
                                                                         Fm Ab Bb
                                                                                        (2x)
When I would take her anyway I can
```

Acordes

