Verse 1

The summer's over, this town is closing.
 They're waving people out of the ocean.
 We had the feeling like we were floating.
 We never noticed where time was going.

Do you remember when we first got here?
 The days were longer; the nights were hot here.
 Now, it's September; the engine's starting.
 You're empty-handed and heavy-hearted.

Chorus

But just remember on the way home, (Oooh ooh ooh)
 That you were never meant to feel alone.
 It takes a little while, but you'll be fine,
 Another good time coming down the line.
 Intro: riff (2x)

Verse 2

Acordes

The diagrams show the following fingerings:

- D: Index on 2nd string, middle on 4th string, ring on 5th string.
- G: Index on 3rd string, middle on 2nd string, ring on 4th string.
- A: Index on 2nd string, middle on 4th string, ring on 5th string.
- Bm: Index on 2nd string, middle on 4th string, ring on 5th string, thumb on 1st string.

You'll go back to love that's waiting,
 I'll unpack in a rented room.
 How's that life you swear you're hating?
 Grass is greener, that makes two.

Chorus

But just remember on the way home, (Oooh ooh ooh)
 That you were never meant to feel alone.
 Just look me up; get back on the bus.
 I'll see you next week if you need my trust.

Verse 3

(D chords throughout this verse, you can switch among D, D, D, to keep it from getting stale)

Life ain't short, but it sure is small.
 You get forever but nobody at all.
 Life ain't short, but it sure is small.
 You get forever but nobody at all.

It don't come often, and it don't stay long.
 (Oooh, oooh, oooh, oooh)

Chorus

But just remember on the way home, (Oooh ooh ooh)
 That you don't ever have to feel alone.
 Just stay on the run; get off the grid.
 Hide yourself out like you know that I did,
 And if you might find that you're running is done,
 A little bit of Heaven never hurt no one.
