

John Mayer - Somebody Loves You

Tom: C

^C You and I, we were born out of the same pain ^{Dm}

^C And when we found our way to one another

^{Dm} We were bleeding from the same vein

^F Sometimes you'll have to go off to see without me ^{Dm}

^F Now you can bring a song you can sing when you're lonely ^{Dm}

^C ^{Dm} Somebody loves you. ^C ^{Dm} Somebody loves you. ^C ^{Dm} Somebody loves you. ^{Dm} Somebody loves you.

^C ^{Dm} Sometimes I think that this is not your first dance across the ^C ^{Dm} life time

^C ^{Dm}

Tell it to the afterlife and ghosts that came before us at the same time

^F ^{Dm} Sooner or later the wind's gonna take you when I won't

^F ^{Dm} When you want to pretend that we lose in the end, baby please don't

^C ^{Dm} ^C ^{Dm} ^C ^{Dm} Somebody loves you. Somebody loves you. Somebody loves you. Somebody loves you.

^{Dm} ^{C\E} When you're losing your life at the end of the day

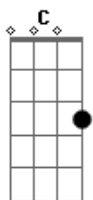

^F ^C Feeling last in line to lay, claim to your name

^{Dm} ^{C\E} When you feel like your heart is on constant display

^C ^{Dm} Somebody loves me. Somebody loves me
