

John Mayer - Walt Grace's Submarine Test, January 1967

tom:
Intro: G
Walt Grace, desperately G C
hating his whole place
D C
Dreamed to discover a new space
D C
And buried himself alive
G C
Inside his basement, tongue on the side of his face meant
C Am
He's working away on displacement
D C
And what it would take to survive

Am Em D
'Cause when you're done with this world
Am Em D
You know the next is up to you
G C D
And his wife told his kids he was crazy
G C Am
And his friends said he'd fail if he tried
D G
But with a will to work hard
C Em
And a library card
A7 C D
He took a homemade, fan-blade, one-man submarine ride

[Solo]
G G C
That morning, the sea was mad and I mean it
C Am
Waves as big as he'd seen it
D C
Deep in his dreams at home
G
From dry land
G D
He rolled it over to wet sand
C Am
Closed the hatch up with one hand
D C
And peddled off alone

Am Em D
'Cause when you're done with this world
Am Em D
You know the next is up to you
G C D
And for once in his life it was quiet
G C Am
As he learned how to turn in the tide
