

John The Ghost - Red House

Tom: D
Intro: D A Em G

[Verse 1]
D A
Listening to red house
Sitting in my white shirt Em
When I thought about the grass stains G
Thought about the red dirt.
D A
It's funny when Spring blooms
The funny way the birds sing Em
I always think I'm gonna sing too G
But I forget the melody.

[Chorus]
D A
La, da, da, da.
La, da, da, da. Em
Or something like that. G

[Verse 2]
D A Em
High school's been dead now for ten years
Isn't that some shit? G
D A Em
And from here on out you'll, you'll keep on losing things
So get used to it. G
D A Em
She said she wished we lived different lives
Now that's some shit G
D A
And the only thing I'm good for is a melody and some poor advice Em
G

So here it is.

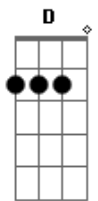

[Chorus]
D A
La, da, da, da.
La, da, da, da. Em
Oh I forget. G
D A
La, da, da, da.
La, da, da, da. Em
Or something like that. G

[Bridge]
D A
Listening to red house
Sitting in my white shirt Em
See every day's a funeral G
Or every day's a new birth.

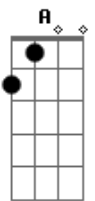

D A
If you're not everything
You're nothing till you try to be Em
Nobody needs saving G
Just a little bit of empathy.

[Outro]
D A Em G
You can't save the ones you love,
D A Em
You can't save the ones you love,
G
But who would really want to?
D A Em
You can't save the ones you love,
G
But who would really want to?
D A Em G
You can't save the ones you love.
