

John Wetton - Desperate Times

tom:

Bm

Em7 You called my name, you knew my number Dbm7

G You told me everything was gonna be fine A

Em You touched my hand, and took me away from this place Em7 Dbm7

G And I keep on thinking I'm going out of my mind A

Bm7 Someone out there calling me

G I don't know what I can't see Em7

A I dread to think what might be there

D I'm shaking now with so much fear Bm

G I know, I feel E

Bm7 I'm living in desperate times

Em I looked to the ground, I couldn't believe my eyes A

G The town I'm from was never that tough A

Em The life I've known is falling away from me A

G And all of my strength may not be enough A

[Solo] Em Em7 Gbm7 A
G Em G A

Em I held the world in the palm of my hand A

G7 And I threw it away like a petulant child A

Bm Now all is gone that I held true

G Em I bound to lose you too?

Bm7 The choking smoke obscures the sun A

D I see so clear what I've become

G I know, I feel E7

E We're living in desperate times Bm

Bm Someone out there calling me

G I don't know what I can't see

A I dread to think what might be there

D I'm shaking now with so much fear Bm7

G I know, I feel E

Bm7 I'm living in desperate times

G I know, I feel E

Bm7 I'm living in desperate times
