

Johnnie Guilbert - You Girl

Tom: D

I know, times have been so rough
 Not just for me but for the both of us

You girl, got me where you want me
 At the end of every storybook, is where you'll always find me

I know, times have been so rough
 Not just for you but for the both of us

Fala laratatara laratatara laratatara
 Fala laratatara laratatara laratatara

You girl, got me if you want me
 At the end of every storybook, is where you'll always find me

I know, times have been so rough
 Not just for me but for the both of us

Sunshine, sunshine make believe
 That fairytales that don't believe in me. And I say
 "Sunshine, sunshine make believe
 That fairytales that don't believe in me"

You girl, yeah you sure always had me
 Waiting in your storybook, for you to come around
 I was lost and then I'm found
 Waiting in your storybook for you to hold my hand
