

Johnny Cash - Another Song To Sing

tom:

Intro: A D E A

A D E A
 Do they ask you where I am or where I've been?
 D E A
 Do they ever say where is the lonely friend?
 D E A
 Is my name whispered in your bedside prayers?
 D E A
 Do you feel a vacant spot beside you there?

[Refrão]

D E A
 Well, there's always one more path that I must walk
 D E A
 And there's people I should sit down with and talk
 D E A
 And somebody might appreciate the flowers I could

Bring

So, there's always another song to sing

(A D E A)

D E A
 Do you tell them I was wilder than the wind?
 D E A
 Do you remember that I needed lots of friends?
 D E A
 And at other times I'd rather be alone
 D E A
 Where I could not be found when I was gone

[Refrão]

D E A
 Well, there's always one more canyon to explore
 To touch the things left by those gone before
 D E A
 At the top of the tiniest hill, I can feel like I'm
 A king
 D E A
 And there's always another song to sing
