

Johnny Cash - Everybody's Trying To Be My Baby

Tom: E

Well, they took a little honey from a honey tree, they dressed it up and they called it me.

Now everybody's trying to be my baby, everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby, now.

I went out last night 'bout half past four, fifty women knocking on my door,
and everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby, now.

I went out last night, and I didn't stay late,

'fore I'm home I had nineteen dates,
and everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby, now.

Me and my gal sitting in the shade, talk 'bout the money that she has made,
and everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby, now.

Everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby,
everybody's trying to be my baby, now
