

Johnny Cash - Girl From Saskatoon

Tom: A

^A Ooo, ^A oooo, ^E ooooo, ^A ooooo, ooo, wah wah wah wahhh

^A I left a little town a little south of Hudson Bay
^E I couldn't find a thing to make a rounder want to stay
^A I fought the wind across the barren waste and the crystal dunes

^E Goin' for to marry the girl from Saskatoon

^E I'm glad I realized that no one could take her place
^B My heart was beatin' for her like the winter beat my face
^A But knowin' that I'd see her made my spirit bright as June
^E I'm freezin' but I'm burnin' for the girl in Saskatoon

^A Ooo, ^E oooo, ^A ooooo, ^E ooooo, ooo, wah wah wah wahhh

South and west and followin' the cold December sun
^B I bedded down in the caragana when my daily trek was done
^D Then up and pressin' onward by the light of the morning moon
^E A prodigal returnin' to the girl in Saskatoon

^A Ooo, ^E oooo, ^A ooooo, ^E ooooo, ooo, wah wah wah wahhh
^E Then I found a trail that had packed beneath the snow

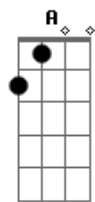

^A I made the final miles where the prairie lilies grow
^D A steeple on a church glistened by the prairie moon
^E I'm freezin' but I'm burnin' for the girl in Saskatoon

^E But my journey was forgotten when I held her in my arms
^B My wonderlust was stifled by possession of her charms

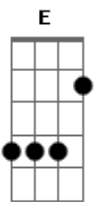

^A And kneeling neath the steeple where we couldn't wait till June

^E I found eternal spring with the girl in Saskatoon
