 Down a dangerous road, I have come to where I'm standing

 With a heavy heart, and my hat clutched in my hand
^A ^D ^A
 Such a foolish man, God ain't known no greater sinner
^G ^A ^D
 I have come in search of Jesus, hping he will understand
^D ^A
 If I give my soul, will he clean these clothes I'm wearin'?
^D ^E
 If I give my soul, will he put new boots on my feet?
^A ^D ^A
 If I bow my head and beg God for his forgiveness
^D ^A ^E
 Will he breathe new breath within me and bring her back to ^A
 me?
^D ^A
 I had a woman once, she was kind and she was gentle
^E
 Had a child by me, who grew up to be a man
^A ^D ^A
 I had a steady job, til I started into drinkin'
^D ^A ^E
 Then I started makin' music travellin' with the Devil's
^A
 band

^D ^A
 Oh the years went by like a mighty rush of eagles
^D ^E
 Our dreams and plans were all scattered in the wind
^A ^D ^A
 And it's a lonesome life, when you lose the ones you live for
^D ^A ^E
 If I make my peace with Jesus, will she take me back
^A
 again?
^D ^A
 If I give my soul, will he stop my hands from shaking?
^D ^E
 If I give my soul, will my son love me again?
^A ^D ^A
 If I give my soul, and she knows I really mean it
^D ^A ^E ^A
 If I give my soul to Jesus, will she take me back again?
^D ^A
 If I give my soul, will he clean the clothes I'm wearin'
^D ^E
 If I give my soul, will he put new boots on my feet
^A ^D ^A
 If I bow my head, and beg God for his forgiveness
^D ^A ^E
 Will he breathe new breath within me and bring her back to ^A
 me?
