

Johnny Cash - Let The Train Blow The Whistle

Tom: G

I don't want no aggravation
 When my train has left the station
 If you're there or not, I may not even know
 Have a round and remember
 Things we did that weren't so tender
 Let the train blow the whistle when I go
 On my guitar sell tickets
 So someone can finally pick it
 And tell the girls down at the Ritz
 I said hello
 Tell the gossipers and liars
 I will see them in the fire
 Let the train blow the whistle when I go

Let her blow, let her blow
 Long and loud and hard and happy
 Let her blow
 No regrets, all my debts will be paid
 When I get laid
 Let her blow, let her blow, let her blow
 You'll be left without excuses
 For the evils and abuses
 Down to today from years and years ago
 And have yourself another toke
 From my basket full of smoke
 And let the train blow the whistle when I go
 {chorus}
