G
 Well, you wonder why I always dress in black.
 Why you never see bright colors on my back, and
 Why does my appearance, seem to have a sombre tone,
 Well, there's a reason for the things that I have on.
 I wear the black for the poor and the beaten down,
 Livin' in the hopeless, hungry side of town.
 I wear it for the prisoner, who has long paid for his crime.
 But is there because he's a victim of the times.
 I wear the black for those, who've never read,
 Or listened to the words, that Jesus said,
 About the road to happiness, through love and charity,
 Why, you'd think He's talking straight to you and me.
 Well, we're doin' mighty fine, I do suppose,
 But just so we're reminded, of, the ones who are held back,
 Up front there oughta be a man in black.
 I wear it for the sick and lonely old,

For the reckless ones, whose bad trip left them cold,
 I wear the black in mournin', for the lives that could have been,
 Each week we lose a hundred fine young men. and
 I wear it for the thousands who have died,
 Believin' that the Lord was on their side,
 I wear it for another hundred thousand who have died,
 Believin' that we all were on their side.
 Well, there's things that never will be right, I know and things need changin' everywhere you go,
 But 'til we start to make a move, to make a few things right,
 You'll never see me wear a suit of white.
 Aw! I'd love to wear a rainbow every day, and Tell the world that ev'rything's OK
 But I'll try to carry off a little darkness on my back,
 'Til things are brighter, I'm the man in black.
