A D
E Where are you going, Miss Tara, Miss Tara,
E7 where are you going, Miss Tara Joan ?

D Yesterday when you played on the swing and the trampoline, you're already thinking of a life of your own.

A And I turn around twice and you're already gone.

E A D
E Who will you marry, Miss Tara, Miss Tara,
A D E

E7 who will you marry, Miss Tara Joan ?
A D
Will he have wealth and will he have fame, E

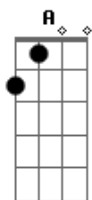

E7 I'm sure, too, you're wonderin' just who he will be ?
E E7 A
Well, that's your decision, it's not up to me.

E A D
E I hope you'll be happy, Miss Tara, Miss Tara, E

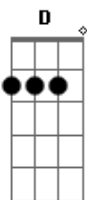

E7 I hope you'll be happy, Miss Tara Joan !
A D
And that you will stay with me till you're a woman, E

E7 and wise to the world before you're off on your own. A
E E7 A
You're my last baby girl and I'll be so alone.
