

Johnny Cash - Miss Tara

Tom: A

(intro) A D E A

E A D
Where are you going, Miss Tara, Miss Tara, E7 A D E
where are you going, Miss Tara Joan ?

D A E7
Yesterday when you played on the swing and the trampoline,
A E7
you're already thinking of a life of your own.

A E7
And I turn around twice and you're already gone.

E A D
Who will you marry, Miss Tara, Miss Tara,
A D E
who will you marry, Miss Tara, Miss Tara,

E7 A D
who will you marry, Miss Tara Joan ?
A D
Will he have wealth and will he have fame,

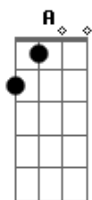

E7 A E
I'm sure, too, you're wonderin' just who he will be ?
E E7
Well, that's your decision, it's not up to me.

E A D
I hope you'll be happy, Miss Tara, Miss Tara,
A D E
I hope you'll be happy, Miss Tara Joan !

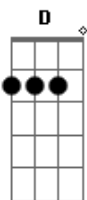

E7 A D
And that you will stay with me till you're a woman,
A E
and wise to the world before you're off on your own.

E7 E7 A
You're my last baby girl and I'll be so alone.
