

Johnny Cash - Nasty Dan

Tom: D

G D
 Nasty Dan was the meanest man I ever knew,
D A
 he'd stomp and scream and be real mean the whole day through,
G he'd frown a bunch, he ate nails for lunch and he'd never laugh,
A7 D D
 he'd growl and yell and I heard tell that he never took a bath.
A G D D
 Nasty Dan was a nasty man, hard to understand that Nasty Dan.
G D
 Now, Nasty Dan was a nasty man the whole day long,
D A
 he'd go where he could and he'd try real good to make things go wrong.
G
 He'd jump for joy when a little boy would trip and fall,
A7 D D
 and the only words that he ever said were, ?I don't like you at all.?

A G D D
 Nasty Dan was a nasty man, hard to understand that Nasty Dan.
 Now a real interesting thing that I want you to know about is this here because it's the most important thing it concerns
 a girl
 and things like that.
G D
 Now, Nasty Pearl was a nasty girl that met Dan somehow,
D A
 she said you like me rotten as can be, let's get married now.
G
 So they went and they did and had a nasty kid and I must confess,
A that Dan
 pretty much leaves everyone alone now ,
 and he doesn't bother anybody anymore
 'cause he just lives in his nasty ol' house with his nasty ol' wife
A7 D
 and his nasty ol' kid in nasty happiness.
A G D D
 Nasty Dan he?s a nasty man, hard to understand that Nasty Dan.

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com