

Johnny Cash - Nasty Dan

Tom: D

D
G Nasty Dan was the meanest man I ever knew,
A
D he'd stomp and scream and be real mean the whole day through,
G D he'd frown a bunch, he ate nails for lunch and he'd never laugh,
A
D
A7 he'd growl and yell and I heard tell that he never took a bath.
G
D
A Nasty Dan was a nasty man, hard to understand that Nasty Dan.
D
G Now, Nasty Dan was a nasty man the whole day long,
A D he'd go where he could and he'd try real good to make things go wrong.
G
D He'd jump for joy when a little boy would trip and fall,
A
D
A7 and the only words that he ever said were, ?I don't like you at all.?

G D D
A Nasty Dan was a nasty man, hard to understand that Nasty Dan.
Now a real interesting thing that I want you to know about is this here because it's the most important thing it concerns
a girl
and things like that.
D
G Now, Nasty Pearl was a nasty girl that met Dan somehow,
A
D she said you like me rotten as can be, let's get married now.
G So they went and they did and had a nasty kid and I must confess,
A
that Dan
pretty much leaves everyone alone now ,
and he doesn't bother anybody anymore
'cause he just lives in his nasty ol' house with his nasty ol' wife
A7 D
and his nasty ol' kid in nasty happiness.
G D D
A Nasty Dan he's a nasty man, hard to understand that Nasty Dan.

Acordes

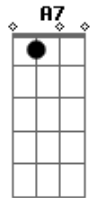

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com