

Johnny Cash - Pocahontas

Tom: D

^A
 Aurora borealis, the icy sky at night,
^D
 paddles cut the water in a long and hurried flight, ^E ^G ^D
^A
 from the white man to the fields of green, ^E ^G ^D ^A
 in the homeland we've never seen.

^A
 They killed us in our tepee, they cut our women down,
^D ^A
 they might have left some babies cryin' on the ground, ^E ^G ^D ^A
 but the firesticks and the wagons come, ^E ^G ^D ^A
 and the night falls on the setting sun.

^A
 They massacred the buffalo, Kitty corner from the bank,
^D ^A
 taxis run across my feet and my eyes have turned to blanks,
^E ^G ^D ^A
 in my little box at the top of the stairs,
^E ^G ^D

^A
 with my Indian rug and a pipe to share.

^A
 I wish I was a trapper, I would give a thousand pelts
^D ^A
 to sleep with Pocahontas and find out how she felt,
^E ^G ^D ^A
 in the mornin' on the fields of green, ^E ^G ^D ^A
 in the homeland we've never seen.

^A
 And maybe Marlon Brando will be there by the fire, ^D

^A ^A
 we'll sit and talk about Hollywood and the good things
 there for hire,
^E ^G ^D ^A
 like the Astrodome and the first tepee,
^E ^G ^D

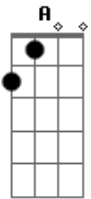

^A
 Marlon Brando, Pocahontas and me,
^E ^G ^D

^A
 Marlon Brando, Pocahontas and me.
^E ^G ^D ^A Pocahontas.
