

Johnny Cash - Redemption (ver.2)

Tom: C
Intro: Am

From the ^{Am} hands it came down
From the ^D side it came down
From the ^E feet it came down
And ran to the ground
Between ^{Am} heaven and hell
A ^D teardrop fell
In the ^E deep crimson dew
The tree of life grew

|And the ^C blood gave life
|To the ^G branches of the tree
|And the ^F blood was the price
|That set the captives free
|And the ^C numbers that came
|Through the ^G fire and the flood
|Clung to the tree

^{Am}
|And were redeemed by the blood

From the tree streamed a light
That started the fight
'Round the tree grew a vine
On whose fruit I could dine
My old friend Lucifer came
Fought to keep me in chains
But I saw through the tricks
Of six-sixty-six

{chorus}

From his hands it came down
From his side it came down
From his feet it came down
And ran to the ground
And a small inner voice
Said \"You do have a choice.\
The vine engrafted me
And I clung to the tree

{chorus}

^{Am}
From his hands it came down
^D
From his side it came down
^E
From his feet it came down
^{Am}
