

Johnny Cash - Redemption (ver.2)

Tom: C
Intro: Am

From the <sup>Am</sup> hands it came down
From the <sup>D</sup> side it came down
From the <sup>E</sup> feet it came down
And ran to the ground
Between <sup>Am</sup> heaven and hell
A teardrop fell
In the <sup>E</sup> deep crimson dew
The tree of life grew

|And the <sup>C</sup> blood gave life
|To the <sup>G</sup> branches of the tree
|And the <sup>F</sup> blood was the price
|That set the captives free
|And the <sup>C</sup> numbers that came
|Through the <sup>G</sup> fire and the flood
|Clung to the tree

|And were redeemed by the blood

From the tree streamed a light
That started the fight
'Round the tree grew a vine
On whose fruit I could dine
My old friend Lucifer came
Fought to keep me in chains
But I saw through the tricks
Of six-sixty-six

{chorus}

From his hands it came down
From his side it came down
From his feet it came down
And ran to the ground
And a small inner voice
Said \"You do have a choice.\
The vine engrafted me
And I clung to the tree

{chorus}

<sup>Am</sup>
From his hands it came down
<sup>D</sup>
From his side it came down
<sup>E</sup>
From his feet it came down
And ran to the ground
